

Spies: The long and winding tube

Directions: Read Spies: then answer in COMPLETE sentences the questions below.
How can we fit 7 meters of small intestines into our bodies?

1. Explain why they call the Small Intestine small even though it's longer than the Large Intestine.
2. What is the importance of pancreatic juices in the small intestine?
3. Explain the role of bile in the small intestine.
4. Write how food moves through the small intestine.

Google these questions:

5. The small intestine is covered in villi. What is villi (also recommend google image this)
6. What is the importance of villi in the small intestine?
7. What is diffusion?
8. How is diffusion happen in the small intestine?
9. Explain how the circulatory system and the small intestine work together.