

Gale Research Database

How to access the database

- Go to the LRC website
- Click on “Gale Research Database” (on the left under “Quick Links”)
- Click on the database you want

Getting started

- This is the main menu area

The screenshot shows the main menu area of the Gale Research Database. At the top, it says 'My Library: GROVE JR HIGH SCHOOL' and 'Change Databases'. There are links for 'English', 'Sign in with Google', and 'Sign in with Microsoft'. The main header area features the Gale logo, 'GALE IN CONTEXT High School', and a search bar. Below the search bar is an 'Advanced Search' link. A red arrow points to the search bar with a text box: 'If you already have a topic or key words, you can type them in here.' To the right of the search bar is a red box with text: 'Click here to sign in using your Google account. You'll be able to save your work to Google Drive.' A red arrow points from this box to the 'Sign in with Google' link. Below the search bar is a navigation bar with icons for 'Browse Topics', 'Title List', 'Search History', 'Get Link', and 'Highlights And Notes'. A red arrow points from the 'Browse Topics' icon to a text box: 'If you are not sure what to research yet, then you can click here to browse hundreds of topics.' Another red arrow points from the 'Highlights And Notes' icon to a text box: 'Click on “Highlights and Notes” if you want to download or print all your notes and highlights from all your articles.'
